NOTICE TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.
The Daily Democrat delivered by carriers throughout the city will hereafter be at the rate of twenty-five cents per week, including the Sunday paper.

Important Notice.
Owing to the increased expense of every article used in the printing business, and an advance price of twenty-five per cent. on the expense of composition, we are compelled to increase the price of the Daily Democrat. Hereafter the Daily, by mail, will be one dollar per month, or six dollars for six months, or ten dollars per year, in advance.

Important to News Dealers.
We understand that General Sherman has issued an order by which any person who desires to sell papers at the front, thus destroying the monopoly which has so long inconvenienced the army, and deprived it of a full supply of papers.

Persons can procure any number of papers at this office at the usual rate of three dollars per hundred; postage added, if by mail.

CITY NEWS.

AROLEY.—Yesterday morning, between three and four o'clock, an accident occurred in our pressroom, by which the second page of our paper was pried. The paper had been put to press, but, owing to the breaking of one of the screws of the press, the form was thrown to the floor and rendered a complete wreck. This was an unavoidable accident, and our readers must excuse us for giving them such a small amount of reading matter yesterday.

The grand ratification meeting of the Democracy to-morrow in New Albany promises to be one of the largest political demonstrations ever held in southern Indiana. The people of the Second District are determined to give "a long pull, a strong pull, and a pull together."

The ratification meeting in favor of McClellan and Fremont, who are for saving this Union and preserving the old Constitution, and the following distinguished speakers are expected to be present: Hon. George H. Pendleton, Hon. Joshua F. Bell, Gov. Robinson, Hon. James Guthrie, of Kentucky, Hon. P. B. Sevier, of New York, Hon. Emerson Etheridge, of Tennessee, and the Hon. T. A. Hendricks, of Indiana. The Hon. Joseph E. McDonald will be present if circumstances will permit. Our Hoosier friends invite everybody to be present to-morrow. CRIT.—"All quiet in front" of the jail and court-room yesterday—nothing doing.

It was a beautiful day, and our sidewalks were filled with ladies out shopping. The streets were dusty, as usual. We noticed an improvement on Third street: it is a new street from Main to the wharves, which is new, and a new steamboat lying alongside of that, with a newly married couple on board. Locomotives and trains kept First street in full running order. Market was full of mud, watermelons and children. Broadway was full of fast horses and pretty girls. Other streets were rather dull. Business was not as brisk as usual.

Last night the places of amusement—both theaters, the fair, and jail—were filled. The city was quiet up to a late hour.

BARRACKS NO. 1.—Business very brisk yesterday at the barracks. One hundred and twenty-five convalescents were received; also twenty-five recruits from Philadelphia and seven deserters from Lexington. One hundred and seven convalescents were sent to Nashville, six to Bowlinggreen, seven to Munfordsville, thirty-four to Lexington and three to New York city.

LEGION.—The Louisville Legion yesterday turned over their arms to the military authorities, and will be paid off to-day and mustered out of the service. Eighty-four members of this gallant old regiment had re-enlisted, and were killed and wounded in the late Georgia campaign.

GOING HOME.—The gallant Ninth and Tenth Indiana regiments arrived from the front yesterday morning, having served their time honestly in this city, and "The Hoies," a comic song for cotton buyers to listen to. Messrs. Tripp & Cragg have them for sale.

A large train of sick and wounded arrived from Nashville last night.

WANTED.—A man to work on a farm near the city. Inquire at this office.

Thanks to J. G. Dugan, express messenger, for late Nashville papers.

The Races at Woodlawn Yesterday.

There was a fair attendance at Woodlawn yesterday, but not so large as we expected to see. The day was a most beautiful one, and the track was in excellent condition for the first time. The horses for the first match—Mail and Armstrong—were brought on the track at the top of the hill, both looking in good trim. During the morning Frank Armstrong was the favorite in the pools at nearly two to one, but when the track was reached the betting changed, and the knowledge one began to invest their money on the mare.

For the first heat the horses got off well together, but before making the first turn Armstrong made a bad break, and the mare opened a considerable gap on him. When the horse was got down to his work he made for the lead, and succeeded in closing up the gap considerably, but the little mare was too fast, and passed the string on the first mile. In the lead 2:50 1/2. On entering the second mile the driver of the horse used every effort to take the lead, and at the three quarters pole he succeeded in lapping the mare, and in this way they ran until entering the home stretch, when the mare is thrown from his feet and the mare goes ahead, coming in first, and winning the heat in 5:57, the last mile being made in 2:40 1/2.

After the usual time for cooling off had been allowed, the horses were called up for the second heat. This heat was well contested, the horse making several desperate efforts to win, but the mare proved too fast, and came in winner of the heat and race in 5:40 1/2. The first mile was made in 2:54 and the last in 2:40 1/2. We annex the named Jacob Swasey, who says he needs to be a down-east schoolmaster, paid Chattanooga a visit recently, and, hearing that the "negro trade" was pretty good in this city, thought he'd come up and try his hand. He did. On the train coming from Nashville, night before last, he coaxed five sun-burnt Americans into the car, and brought them to this city, under the pretense that he would set them free on the other side of the river. So he hid the sons of Ham, and made application to several citizens, who offered to buy the negroes for substitutes, but "down-east" wanted to sell the "bull nigger or none." One of the detectives went with him to buy them, and he did, cheap. He arrested five negroes, and Swasey with in the guardhouse, and the five negroes were enlisted into the "black brigade," free of charge. The detectives were from Metcalfe county, and Swasey from "way down in Maine."

HOW IT WAS DONE.—On Monday morning

a policeman of Cincinnati arrested an Irishman on the charge of robbery. The man was put in jail and kept there until the policeman paid him a visit in the afternoon. He proposed getting his prisoner out of jail and the scrape if he would give him $500. This the fellow couldn't raise, but the amount was limited to $200, which he said he would give provided he would come down to Jeffersonville, where his wife was. They came down on the steamer Rebecca, and paid the man's wife a visit, when the case was explained to her. She at once handed over the amount to the policeman, who then demanded $15 more to defray his expenses. She said when there appeared another "Richmond in the dock," a policeman from Cincinnati came down yesterday and arrested Mr. P. N. and the Irishman—one for a rascal, the other as a deserter. The money was refunded to the poor woman, and the parties taken to Cincinnati, where they will both be tried.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS—Tuesday, Sept. 13.

John Coleberger and James Reid, drunk and disorderly; fined $5 each and bail in $10 for three months.

John Coleman, drunk and disorderly; fined $5.

Isaac Jackson, stealing clothing from Jacob Jacobson; discharged.

Mary Parmie (f. w. c.), stealing clothing; discharged.

D. D. Hamilton and Jas. D. Hammeron, suspected loafers; continued until to-morrow.

Dennis Gallagher, James Long, Edward Sheen, Robert Willie, James Howard, Robert Martin, and Samuel Hall, stealing boots, &c., property in possession of the Louisville Transfer Company; under trial at noon.

John Wood and Con. Haff, stealing $900 from John Ford; continued until to-morrow morning.

ROBERT O. WATCHE.—Some time during Monday night, or early yesterday morning, a man by the name of Fritz lost his watch under the following circumstances: He arrived in this city from the Nashville train, and was placed in a room with a stranger, and upon retiring took his watch from his vest pocket and placed it under his pillow. When awakened yesterday his watch was gone, notwithstanding the fact that the door was locked. The watch was a fine gold one valued at $800. The thief has not yet been arrested.

COL. FARLEIGH has not as yet received any information from the Secretary of War in relation to the ration of soldiers' wives and relatives, which were stopped a few days ago. When he does, due notice will be given to those entitled to them, and to those other. A different plan from the former one will no doubt be adopted, as regards the disposition of rations.

BROTHER BACK.—Yesterday an order was issued sending Mr. S. H. Goodman, W. C. Gallagher and George Gallagher over the river, to remain there during the war. They started, but had not reached the ferryboat before they were ordered to return. They were lodged in the guardhouse at the barracks.

MR. W. J. FRATHER was ordered some time since to go over the river, and remain there until the war was over. Yesterday he was arrested in this city and sent to the barracks prison, where he will doubtless remain for some time, until his case is investigated.

The funeral of Rev. A. W. LaTou will take place at the Walnut street Baptist church (Wednesday) morning, at 10 o'clock. Members of the denomination, friends and acquaintances are invited to attend.

There was not much business transacted in military circles yesterday. No one took the oath to be released at Col. Farleigh's headquarters. The usual number of passes were issued.

HORSES.—We noticed a very large drove of horses for the United States cavalry service going out Fourth street yesterday.

A large mail from the army of the Cumberland was sent North yesterday.

ROBBING SOLDIERS' LETTERS.—Several days ago the worthy postmaster at Barracks No. 1 went home on a short furlough, and earnest C. C. Olla, company C, One Hundred and Twenty-fourth Ohio, was selected as a suitable person to fill the position in his absence, which he did, as every one thought, until Monday, when he was detected by Lieut. Hawley and Lieut. Morris. He snatched a stick directly opposite Lieut. Olla, each sticking back to back—and he placed a looking-glass before him so that he could watch the movements of Olla, without being suspected. By this means he saw him tear open several letters and take out the contents. Without saying anything to Olla, he notified Lieut. Morris of the theft, and to make sure of his recalcitancy they each put money in an envelope—the former a one dollar bill, marked, the latter two broken bank bills—and had them dropped in the letter-box by a scissor. Lieut. Morris resumed his seat, and through the aid of the mirror saw Olla take the identical envelopes out of the box and extract the money therefrom. In a few moments Olla asked to go out with a friend, and play "pigeon." It was granted, and the two Lieutenants examined the boxes and found their letters missing. This was exactly what they followed up the thief and at once arrested him, put him in heavy irons and lodged him in the guard-house. The money was found upon his person. It is not known how long the thief has been engaged in this dirty piece of business, or how much of the poor soldiers' money he has robbed them of, they having been paid off a few days ago, and the larger portion of their hard earned money passed through the rascal's hands. It is supposed, though, that he has broken open a great many letters, as he has recently bought a fine stock of clothing, and is known to have sent different lots of money to his wife. He should be made to suffer for his recalcitancy to the fullest extremity of military and civil law.

Amusements.

WOOD'S THEATRE.—Last week of the Carter

Zouave Troupe. This is the last week of the Carter Zouave Troupe and Decker Family in our city, and those who have not seen them should not let this opportunity slip, as it will probably be the last they will have. The song, "Dear Mother, I have come home to die," by Miss Louisa Berger, was excellent, while the "Mocking Bird," with illustrations by Miss Annie and Sig. Grand, drew forth shouts of applause. In the "Pretending Master" Miss Maggie was warmly received. To-night an excellent bill is presented, which should draw a full house.

LOUISVILLE THEATRE.—The play of "Rosalind" is a complete success and draws crowded houses. Mr. Barrett is more than an ordinary actor, and his part of Rosalind is admirably rendered. Mr. Krone, an old favorite with the Louisville public, was excellent in the part of Miles McKenna. The piece will be repeated to-night.

The Democracy of Shelby county have met and spoken out for McClellan. Other counties have already spoken, and on the 17th instant, in response to a general understanding, hundreds and thousands of voters will meet to rally the Chicago nomination. There is no mistaking the general sentiment—the minds of the people are made up. McClellan is their choice, and will be the next President. The vituperation and abuse that may be heaped upon him by the Abolition press only strengthens him in the contest. He stands forth pure and undefiled, and all that is wanting is for the election day to roll around, and the people will decide the matter in his favor. On all sides there is a general rejoicing over his nomination now, as there will be in November next over his election.

HEAVY ROBBERY.—ARREST OF THE PARTIES.

On Sunday morning, Jan. Ford, who boards at the house of Dawson, on the wharf, between Sixth and Seventh streets, was robbed of over $600 in Indiana and Kentucky money and some $400 in United States 10/30's. He retired Saturday night, placing the pocket-book containing his money under the pillow, and when he awoke in the morning it was gone, as were also his two bed-room companions, Jas. Wood and C. H. Haff. Monday a warrant was issued against these two men, who were arrested at Fort No. 1, where they were at work, by officers Thomas Antie and Joel Lamborne. They will have a hearing before Judge Johnston this morning.

AN EVENING RIDE.—On Monday evening a select party of ten fashionable and handsome young ladies, accompanied by dashing young gentlemen, all mounted on noble steeds, who seemed proud of their precocious butlers, engaged in the pleasant sport of an evening ride. They paid the waiter-works a visit, at which romantic spot they enjoyed for a time the beautiful scenery around, and then, when the quiet shade of evening drew nigh, they returned to the city, having spent the evening very pleasantly. "All went merry as a marriage bell."

AN INCIDENT.—Monday, when the guerrilla has boarded the Henderson train, several gentlemen handed over their money and valuables amounting to about $4,000—to a lady appearing of fifty years of age, who was on her way to this city. She managed to come away unscathed by the guerrillas, and, with others, walked eight miles to the Lebanon Junction, and arrived in this city Monday afternoon with her booty. This was a noble deed.

The funeral of Mr. Rich, who committed suicide, took place Monday afternoon from Hospital No. 3, on Center street. The remains were followed to Car Hill Cemetery by a large concourse of friends and acquaintances, including all the stewards belonging to the hospitals in this city. We were misinformed when we stated it was strychnine he took; it was morphine.

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday a soldier whose name we were unable to learn had his foot badly mashed by one of the cars on the Louisville and Portland railroad. He was attempting to get aboard of the car while it was in motion, and, slipping, his foot was thrown beneath the wheel, which passed over it, crushing it so badly that amputation will be necessary.

PERMITS.—The following number of permits have been issued during the month ending August 31st:

General permits. 205

Special permits. 1,289

Shipping permits. 2,628

Amputation permits. 213

Total. 4,935

There are at present fifty-two political prisoners and seventy-eight guerrillas confined in the prison at Barracks No. 1. They are all getting along well.

FIRE.—Masonic Temple was very well fitted last evening with persons attending the School Fair. It will be open this evening at the usual hour.

We did not hear of any arrests being made by the police yesterday. The fortifications have run all the thieves and rascals out of town.

The Nashville train arrived on time last evening. All quiet.
